THE OHIO STAR

Rates of Advertising.

Published at Ravenna, Portage Co., Ohio. LYMAN W. HALL Proprietor. Trans. -$1,50 per annum.

A Liberal discount made to those who nevertise

E. No paper discontinued until arreariges ar

NOW READY, GREAT AMERICAN TALE,

UNCLE TOP'S CABIN

LIFE AMONG THE LOWLY. THIS great work which has long been ex-pected, is now completed. By all who That Hule's the man to take the chair. ead it, it is pronounced to be the Story have read it, it is pro-of the Age!

For power of description and thrilling de-fer power of description and thrilling de-will add fresh laurels to the reputation of the talented Authoress.

It will be published in two vols. 12mo. 312 pages in each vol., with 6 elegant designs, by Billings, engraved by Baker. In three styles at binding, paper covers, for $1.00; cloth, $1.50; cloth, full gilt, $2,00, with discount Early orders solicited.

Publishers, Cleveland, Ohio. The work can be sent by mail, the postage under 500 miles on the paper bound-being 25 cents, and 34c on the cloth bound. Persons sending these amounts in postage stamps, in addition to the prices above menioned, shall receive a copy by mail pre-paid. AGENTS WANTED

A supply of new and popular Music, constantly on hand, among which may be found—
The Dying Exile,

Each sigh the heart will treasure, The Wild Brier, leney Gallopade. The Father's Prayer, When friends that have left us,

The Belle of Louisville,
I have something sweet to tell your I'm talking in my sleep, My Pretty Blanch, Little Eva, Uucle Tom's Guardian Augel, Songs for the Times, Polkas, Whorse, &c., &c., for sale at HALL's BOOK STORE. Polkas, Waltzes, Quicksteps, Marches

8500 CHALLETGE.

THE TAPE WORM!

der to destroy this worm, a very energetic treatall obstructions, that the Worm syrup may not di-rect upon the worm, which must be taken in doses of 2 table-spoonfulls 3 times a day. These direc-tions followed, have never been known to fail in enting the most obstinate case of Tape Worm
HOBENSACH'S LIVER PILLS!

No part of the system is more imble to disease then the Liver, it serving as a filterer to purify the blood or giving the proper secretion to the bile; so that any wrong action of the Liver inflects the so that any wrong action of the tayer ancers the other important parts of the system and results variously in Liver complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia &c. We should therefore watch every symptom that might indicate a wrong action of the Liver. These pills being composed of roots and plants furnished by nature to head the sick, namely; lat, An Expectorant which augments the secretion from the pulmonary mucus membrane or promotes the discharge of secreted matter. 2d. An Atterathe discharge at secreted matter. 2d. An Astera-tive which changes in some inexplicable manner-the certain morbid action of the system. 3d. A Tonic which gives tone and strength to the nervota-system, renew in health and vigor to all parts of the body. 4dh. A Cathartic which acts is perfect harmony with the other ingredients and operating on the Bowels and expelling the whole mass of corrupt and vitisted matter and purifying the blood which destroys disease and restores health.

TO FEMALES.

TO FEMALES.

You will find these pills an invaluable medicine in many complaints to which you are subject. In obstructions either fotal or partial they have been found of mestimable benefit, restoring their functional arrangements to a healthy action, purifying the blood and other fluids so effectually to put to flight all complaints which may arise from female irregularities, as headlache, giddiness, dimness of sight, pain in the side, back, &c.

None genuine-unless signed J. N. Hobensack; all others being base limitation.

If P Agents wishing new supplies, and store-keepers desirous of becoming agents, must address the proprietor, J. N. Hobensack, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dr. Isaac Swift, Havenna; A. V. Horr, Shalarsille; I. B. Sheldon, Atwater; R. Silley, CASH PAID.

STAR HE OHI

RAVENNA WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1852.

Whole Number 1183

her clothes were brought.

" Mr. Waters said it was."

Waters where my clothes are?"

ane to call Mr. Waters to her.

slaves knows how to assume:

bed aloud.

ember you are not in Philadelphia now."

The slave monger took her by the armund

what authority you claim me as your slave?"

"Very prettily spoken, indeed," replied

you are a white girl, because old Simpson

Mr. George Simpson being in New Orleans

n. he closed the door upon her.

"That is not my trunk," said Amanda.

"Will you be kind enough to ask Mr.

For the Ohio Star. A Song for the Times. At Patsburgh where they met of late, To counsel on affairs of State; We've the men to suit the Milli Clear the track for Hale and Julian

That slavery's wrong we do maintain, And will "resist" with might and main; Its onward course its cruel powers, In this delightful land of ours-We've the men, &c.

We're free from all those servile bands; We stand erect with conscience clear, To agitate we do not fear. We've the men, &c.

To struggling nations o'er the sea. We will extend our sympathy; We are to them a beacon light, To guide them through the darkest night. We've the men, &c.

To landless settlers we would give, A little patch on which to live; From "Uncle Sam's" big farm "out we That they with homes may all be blest. We've the men, &c.

The tide is moving strong and deep, The nations pulse begins to leap; Its throes are felt from shore to shore, And tyrants feel their day is o'er. We've the men. &c.

Come old and young, come great and small, And help us to roll on the ball; 'Till Flule's elected, bold and true,

And Libetty begins anew. We've the men, &c. Ravenna, Aug. 21, 1802.

> Amnuda: A Tale for the Times.

BY REV. DR. WILLIAM HENRY BRISBANE. [Copy right secured according to law-]; mission of the Author

agof a people, is at all times of the most angulated to nonce that the same and began to up sition to slavery, enguested his plan. From impersance. It take it for granted that tracted, she ran down stars, and began to up that time he was careful to keep notice of her braid her girls, that none of them had intimation that time he was careful to keep notice of her wherever she went; and when she was left Biobensack's Worth Syrup: the evening before, were on the back of the him the following letter, which he contrived had arrived by stago, he handed to each of chair, and her shues and stockings were on to have suitably postmarked: An article founded upon scientific principles, chair, and her shoes and stockings were on to have suitably postmarked:

the floor, where she had probably slipped to the most tender infant with decided heneficial them off. But her nightgown and cap were missing. Her watch was on the toilet, and there of my Worm syrup are such, that it stands there combs. Nothing was missing from her these of my Worm syrup are such, that it stands there combs. Nothing was missing from her the stands of the most tender in the manufacture of the floor, where she had probably slipped them off. But her nightgown and cap were missing. Her watch was on the toilet, and the manufacture of my Worm syrup are such, that it stands there are coval in the critical form. Nothing was missing from her the shear of the floor, where she had probably slipped them of the floor, where she had probably slipped them of the floor, where she had probably slipped them of the floor, where she had probably slipped them of the floor, where she had probably slipped them of the floor, where she had probably slipped them off. But her nightgown and cap were missing. Her watch was on the toilet, and the shear of the floor of their lives never to utter a word of what had transpired. The ship sailed in a few days, bearing away these witnesses of bundles of the floor of their lives never to utter a word of what had transpired. The ship sailed in a few days, bearing away these witnesses of bundles of the floor of their lives never to utter a word of what had transpired. The ship sailed in a few days, bearing away these witnesses of bundles of the floor of the picked up a piece that evidently formed a friend, that infest the human system; it grows to an almost indefinite length, becoming so coiled and fustened in the intestines and stomach, affecting the health so saile as to reach stomach, affecting the health cumstances would have led strongly to the lou's hand. Charles was thoroughly de- Haven. suspicion that Amanda find been violently ta- ceived by it, and leaving word at his boarding Old Mr. Simpson had not been informed that those offlicted seldom if ever suspect that it is ken off, had it not been probable that her cries house of his temporary absence, he jumped of Ballou's intention to visit New Orleans, and if she made resistance, would have been heard, into the stage that afternoon, and hastened thought he was accompanying his slaves on And her intimacy in the O'Hear family, to-as much astonishment as any. In the course of the day, the following communication was taken from the post-office by Henry O'Hear: "Sin :- Your friend and his sister are already far from this city. Take care of what effects they have in Philadelphia, and forward red when any British or other foreign vessel them to their parents.

at once suspected that young O'Hear was an reminded him that he had not money enough accomplice in the abduction, and had only to do more than pay his passage to Liverpool. feigned ignorance. Upon examination, it was He stated his situation to the captain of the ascertained that he had been from home sev- ship, and the cause of his anxiety to get to eral days, and had only returned to breakfast England as soon as posible. "It is probable," that morning. But as nothing further could said he, "my sister has sailed either for be ascertained, no legal proceedings could be Liverpool or Havre. If I start now I may instituted against him. There was a strong possibly reach the former port before she suspicion against the O' Hears, although there does, or, at all events, soon after. If I hear was in their deportment, all the appearance nothing of her there, I shall proceed immedi-

PEAR & Jackson's Hand Saws—also in large cities, and was soon lost sight of by cross-cut, Tenon, Rep., Felly and Web Saws the multitude. But who can describe the yond his expectations. He was equally successful in eluding the watchman; for, unobfeelings of Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, when they cessful in eluding the watchman; for, unobreceived the intelligence in Cincinnati? But served, he got out of a coach, accompanied found consolations which none but those who have true Christian fuith can realize.

CHAPTER III. witness to the embrace of James and Amanda, when they pledged themselves to one another at Blossom's Hotel. John Dundas was a man of strong and voluptuous passi-Without virtue, he had no disposition for Published in the Ohio Star, by express per- resolved to have Amanda for his mistress. He had penetration enough to see that she was not a girl to be allured from the path of The cold wind was blowing in at the win- rectitude. To possess her, therefore, he wardrobe. Upon going to open the window cay say at your boarding-house, that you will Dundas immediately took his passage by overlooking the yard, two marks were observed be absent from Philadelphia a few days; but stage, and arrived in New Orleans about the upon the outside of the sill, which sugested do not see her lest she should urge you to same time that James Ballou landed there. best evidence of its superior efficacy over all oth- the iden of a ladder. Upon the ground was tell her more. Huston, as you value your He was, however, entirely ignorant of Bal-> city the preceding afternoon, to be absent not knowing what else to do, he determined some failure of the post. several days, but without saying where he upon returning immediately to Philadelphia. was going. The mayor of the city was im. Looking into the Courier, to see what hour mediately informed of the circumstances; the the Northern singe would start, his eves O'Hears were examined, but they professed caught a paragraph, giving an account of the mysterious departure of his sister. Thunderstruck with the intelligence, he dashed down the paper, and uttering a strong excla-This note was handed to the mayor, im- cotton. He engaged his passage, and returnnediately on its reception. But that officer ed to the Planters' Hotel to pay his bill. This

Dr. Isaac Swift, Ravenna; A. V. Horr, Shato-aville; I. B. Sheklon, Atwater; R. Silley, Sub-id; D. K. Wheeler, Randolph; Dr. Preitice, Canfield; J. H. Sexton, Youngstown; Hoyt, Brother & Co., Warren; and wholesale by Dr.
G. H. Helser, No. 140, Wood at., Pittsburgh,
G. D. Haywood, Cleveland.

Was in their Science.

Was in their Science.

The offerie innocence.

The affair produced considerable excitement in Philadelphia for several days, and police afficers were kept upon the search; but there being nothing further heard of the parthe broad Atlantic, with what feelings the reader is left to judge.

Bounty Land warrants, wanted, for which the subscribers will pay the highest market their hearts, they would both have sunk at STRAWDER & BROWN.

Bayenna O. April 5.

Havenna O. April 5.

Having fixed together the intensignment of their graves, or have lost their realizable.

STRAWDER & BROWN.

Come into their graves, or have lost their realizable.

STRAWDER & BROWN.

Come into their graves, or have lost their realizable.

STRAWDER & BROWN.

Come into their graves, or have lost their realizable.

STRAWDER & BROWN.

Come into their graves, or have lost their realizable.

STRAWDER & BROWN.

Come into their graves, or have lost their realizable.

STRAWDER & BROWN.

Come into their graves, or have lost their realizable.

son. 'They felt that all their earthly hopes were perished. Mr. Simpson's first impulse was to seek his children in foreign lands.— and the wind whistled misity through the "Merciful Father in heaven!" exclaimed brought on board in a box. This is all I know. was to seek his children in foreign lands.—
But he feared his absence would add to his house, although net against the window wife's affliction; nor could he hope to find them, if, indeed, they had left the United States—since not the slightest minimation had been given, is either note, as to their local destination. There was some hope, howered the country of the house to careful, that he had the sash pushed up without the slightest noise. Attentively listening, be discovered by her breathing that destination. There was some hope, howered a large sum of money bribad the servant girl her imploring manner, excited the pity of the house to against the window Amanda, as well as her swelled tongue and hoarseness would allow, "Where am I!"

"Don't you know?" said Amanda, imploringly through the house, although the window which Dundas uplitted. His movements were so careful, that he had the sash pushed up without the slightest noise. Attentively listening, be discovered by her breathing that the land with the same that the window which Dundas uplitted. His movements would allow, "Where am I!"

"Don't you know?" said Amanda, imploringly through the house, although the window which Dundas uplitted. His movements would allow, "Where am I!"

"Don't you know?" said Amanda, imploringly through the house, although the window which Dundas uplitted. His movements would allow, "Where am I!"

"Don't you know?" said Amanda, is well as her swelled tongue and hoarseness would allow, "Bon't you know?" said Amanda, imploringly through the house, although the window which Dundas uplitted. His movements would allow, "Bon't you know?" said Amanda, as well as her swelled tongue and hoarseness would allow, "Bon't you know?" said Amanda, as well as her swelled tongue and hoarseness would allow, "Bon't you know?" said Amanda, imploring the hoarseness would allow, "Bon't you know?" said Amanda, as well as her swelled tongue and hoarseness would allow, "Bon't you know?" said Amanda, as well as her swelled tongue and hoarseness would allow, " his sister admitted into whatever convent had of the house to assist him to all the informaparents determined to wait patiently, trusting ber, and to place in her teacup a considera-in the Lord. "Surely," said they, "when ble dose of morphine. He approached her Amanda has accomplished her object, she bed, and getting his hand cautiously over her will then write to us, and then we can take mouth, he pressed a piece of sponge between casures to rescue her from her jesuitical her teeth, and immediately fastened it there securers." They consoled themselves with with his handkerchief, so as to allow her at Amanda could only eleculate, as she cast a the hope that Charles was not himself con- the same time to breathe. Amanda grouned wild look at the stewardess, "Ship Mary! trunk." verted to the Catholic faith, as he had always as one who has taken a large opinte, but was New Orleans!" She mak heavily upon the very warmly, even to the O'Henrs, expressed too much under the influence of the morhis abhorrence of the Papaey, and always phine to offer any resistance. Dundas banchided his sister for her liberality towards deged down her arms to her body, and lifted "Mr. Waters, your girl is dying."
They concluded that he had yield-her to the window. There his accomplice This was the name of the man ed to her affectionate solicitation, to accompa- received her, took her swiftly down the ladmy her as a protector, and that he would re- der, and wrapped a warm cloak around her. to the cabin, and, by the tise of volatiles and turn, either with or without her. But why did not Charles take his trunk with kim? Peditionally followed. A part of the ladder ing to recognize him, and then, with a pite-Did they leave their clothes, and supply was unintentionally left in the yard, it have our sigh, placed her band upon her mouth themselves with others, to avoid being discov- ing come loose as they were taking it over ared? These thoughts perplexed them, but the back wall. They found the carriage You are sick, and must be careful of vourself. at the same time inspired the hope that waiting for them at the end of the alley. As Stewardess, you had better get her into a Amanda was not a convert to Romanism, but soon as they entered it, their stupified priso- berth, and, after a few hours, she will probawas forced away, and that Charles but her was placed in a long narrow box, perfora- bly feel easier." He then returned to this they knew not what to think, it was all a mys- ted with a few holes, and the carriage rolled deck. tery. They prayed to be calm, and, under on towards the Navy Yard. They got out Amanda was too much exhausted to offer the gracious influences of the Spirit, they at a wharf, and Dundas and his companion any resistance; and the stewardess raising handed the box to two men in a yawl. The her up, she leaned upon her and walked into ly towards a ship in the stream, that had, the and laid herself down in the lower borthwas House for New Orleans. omplice, and got into the carriage. This acemplice was none other than a city conetable, who had for money hired himself to resmaster, without incurring the risk of son It was so frequent an occurrence for Dundas to be out late at night, and even until near morning, that it excited no great surprise States Hotel. After a late breakfist, Dundas started in lou's deporture from Charleston ; and Ballon part of a ladder, having a screw at each end,

This was written in close imitation of Bal-since he left him at Blossem's Hotel New CHAPTER IV. The yawl bearing Amanda, having reached the ship, the box was immediately taken on board; the anchor was drawn up, the sails soread, and with a stiff breeze, and a favorable tide, the vessel, though somewhat obstrue asleep in one of the berths. Addressing the crable. But at RECEIVED AT THE NEW HARDWARE STORE. captain, the passenger requested him to fureaptain, the passenger requested him to furnish a screw-driver. He silently handed him one from the tool-cheat, and assisted in opening the bex. Amanda mouned as if in a distressing dream hat meaning the best quality. Also the Tube manufactured of the best quality of pine lumber, and in distressing dream, but was soon still again, dusic. upon being laid carefully on a mattress. The s for the band was removed that confined her arn just received and the spooge taken from her moth. captain went on deck, and the passeng K STORE. tired to his berth. Amunda slept 4.

until some time after daylight. tor's Notice. awoke, there was no one inceby given that the underwarm coal fire was burning been appointed and qualified the breakfast table was learn on the estate of William to the breakfast table was learn of Deerfield, Portage county, was still dreaming, for shi having had some horrible ve THOMAS GREEN.

and her head felt strangely. was considerably swollen. few very superior Sckeyes and raised herself up. E. T. RICHARDSON.

express herself, "I am the stewardess of the ship Mary, bound for New Orleans, and I am very sorry for you; but you must try to be as easy as you can.'

With a heaving breast and choking voice, matress; for she had fainted.

The woman ran upon deck and called out;

This was the same of the man "Now, Martha," said he, "be composed boat pushed off from shore, and made rapid- a small and rather uncomfortable state room. morning before, been cleared at the Custom Jane, for that was the name of the stewardess, covered her warmly, and retired. Aman-"Bravely done," said Dundas, as he hand- da was now perfectly restored to conscious ed a purse filled with gold pieces to his ac- ness and self-possession. She raised her pious heart in supplication to God, to sustain her under these incomprehensible circumstances She remembered that, after drinking tea at tore, as he thought, a runaway slave to her Mrs. Morris's, she soon became very sleepy, and went early to bed. She had an indisfinct recollection that Mrs. Morri's girl seemed very much agitated while assisting her to nawell, and that she had asswered "I feel ence of mind was complete. Perhaps her brother was on board as her pro- Federal government give him every advantector. These thoughts passed rapidly tage. But I appeal to a higher power: Lask through her mind, and she began to thank God that she was recovering her senses. Praying devoutly that she might soon be entirely restored, she fell asleep, and rested quietly Waters, "but know, girl, that all that learnseveral hours. The stewardess came in several hours. The stewardess came in several hours. I suppose you think lept so sweetly she did not disturb her. When she awoke she felt much better and but 1 will let you know that you are not mite refreshed. Her longue was not so wuch swelled, and she audibly said, "I thank | Amanda Simpson, but Martha, the daughter and her intimacy in the O Hear family, together with the liberal concessions she had

If the read that the negroes had also started should read him. And James was in entire assembly. Saving this she deported had her leans. My father owned your mother. Mr. gether with the fiberal concessions she had recently under in speaking of the Cathelic He learned that the negroes had also started should reach him. And James was in entire name! Saying this, she devoutly laid her learned that the negroes had also started should reach him. And James was in entire name! Saying this, she devoutly laid her learned that the negroes had also started should reach him. And James was in entire name! Saying this, she devoutly laid her learned that the negroes had also started should reach him. And James was in entire name! Saying this, she devoutly laid her learned that the negroes had also started should reach him. And James was in entire name! Saying this, she devoutly laid her learned that the negroes had also started should reach him. decrines, rather confirmed the aunouncement decrines and the confirmed the aunouncement decrines and the confirmed the aunouncement decrines are decrined and transpired, but was hard upon her breast. She felt something of Relies to the confirmed a letter best and resolved a letter best and f the letter left upon the toilet glass.

Anxiously for the acquaintances of Ballou, to wondering why he had not received a letter hard, and running her hand into her bosom.

Mrs. Morris immediately seat for Charles.

Anxiously for the acquaintances of Ballou, to wondering why he had not received a letter hard, and running her hand into her bosom.

Gather, and hence you look like the Simpsons. Simpson. But the messenger returned with his hastoning him to Charleston; but not ob- about that time the mails were frequently ir- She had neglected to take it from her neck a note, stating that Mr. Simpson had left the taining, after two days, any satisfaction, and regular, he thought it probable that it was when she retired to bed the night before.— "Dear James," said she to herself, "I did chase you, but my father would not sell .not forget you in my derangement." She Some months afterward, when they bear opened the case, and there dropped out a

"Dean Miss Amanda: - Forgive me the which we mation against the Roman Catholies, he roshed from the hotel to the wharves, and inquitaken into the cabin by two sailers, who laid ter, but the money was a strong out of cheese, will be was to leave for Europe. There was one to sail in a few hours for Liverpool, loaded with cotton. He engaged his passage, and returnawake in the cabin. The stewardess was me. But now Unst Iron Well Curbs.

> fact all the articles pertaining to the Chain Pump, which are offered at remarkably low prices, for Please call and examine.
>
> E. T. RICHARDSON.

> > New Paint Shop.

The undersigned would inform the citizens of Ravenna and vicinity, that he has which as amended contitutes the "Platform" that Mr. Smith presented a minority report (see official proceedings published last week) and upon this the debate arose.

Debute on the Platform. (Concluded.) -REPLY OF MR. GIPPINGS.

Pittsburgh Free Democratic Na-

As the debate on the "Platform," between

Mr. Giddings and Mr. Smith will be of interest to our readers, we give it below. It will be understood that both these gentlemen were on the committee on resolutions-that Mr. Giddings presented the majority report.

Hon Joshua R. Gippings, rose and said It is not my intention to detain you at length this morning, when I was asleep, you was on the subject upon which my friend and brought on board in a box. This is all I know. brother has commented. Some weeks ago my Amanda, as well as her swelled tongue and But la knows I never expected to see such a situation totally prohibited my speaking, and one as you a-going to New Orleans to be a I am still ill, but will say a few words, and will leave it to my friend, Mr. Adams, if he deems it necessary, to speak in defence of composure, and calmly asked the woman if the platform. And first I must express the admiration which I feel for his brother who-"Yes," said Jane, "your trunk was put had just addressed us. I have long reveron board yesterday morning, and there it is ed that noble man; but he has lived among New York politicians, and knows nothing of the West. What! speak in desponding terms to the men of Massachusetts and Obio!-Why, surely he does not know them. Would he tear from our hearts the hone of seeing Jane soon returned with a key, saying, our Country discuthralled? No. I am oh Mr. Waters says your clothes are in that and infirm, my head is covered with gray hairs, yet let me say that I believe my broth-Amanda opened the trunk, and found it er will live to see it take it place. But his illed with a quantity of plain clothing, suitable friend and he lived in different atmospheres. for a servant girl. She again burst into tears He had hope for the mighty West. Yesterday, four years ago, a mass convention had ect such articles as she needed. Jane hav- met at Buffelo, and laid the foundation of ng left her to attend to ber business, she their party. Since then they had in his dressed herself in the plain attire, and, hav- State sent thirteen members to the Legislang smoothed her hair and put it up as simply ture, and through their exertions the infumous as her rich ringlets would allow her, she black code, which had disgraced the statue pened the state-room door, and requested books of Ohio from its very foundation, had been repealed. Our progress was coward When he came into the cabin, and saw and upward; we are growing stronger and he beautiful girl sitting calmly, and her pen- stronger; the eyes of the nation are upon us, etrating black eyes fixed upon his, there was and the slaveholders tremble. Will Mr. momentary expression of remorse : but it | Smith doubt ? God forgive him I say for his miffediately passed off, and he addressed her want of faith. (Tremendous applause.)n that manner that none but a master of Here we stand, every one, on the fixed rock of truth, and will go on conquering and to con-" Well, Martha you are better, are you?" quer until the victory is achieved. "My name is not Martha, sir; and I would

Our friend p. oceeded to recount some points e informed by you why I am your prisoner." which he deemed necessary to forward the "Look here, none of your airs, girl; re- progress of our cause. Now here is a new party, the foundation of which was laid in Amanda's philosophy was not enough for Buff lo, and has been increasing ever since. his. The tears gushed forth, and she sob- Had they not left the old parties? Here Mr. G. called on the Secretary to read the 20 h resolution, declaring that the Free ragged her to the state room. Pushing her Democratic party is not organized to aid either the Whig or Domocratic wing of the great Amanda threw herself upon her knees, and slave compromise party of the Union, but to remained in prayer probably more than an defeat both-nour. The door was opened, and Waters Mr. G. continued : Now, I have nothing entered. She rose and stood before him .- to say in reply to my friend and brother, but undress, that the girl had asked her if she felt The tears were flowing rapidly, but her pres- to thank him for his able argument in favor of the majority report. He feels just what I when he waked up the porter at the United strangely." She saw the girl writing at the "Mr. Waters, I am in your power; and I feel, just what you feel. I repudiate, before table, as she was dropping to sleep. She re- think now I can with patience, meckness, God and man, all who do not stand upon our called numerous unpleasant dreams she had and resignation, submit to such language as plutform; and let me say, he stands upon it. these I feel it to be my duty to solemnly assure you that Worms, according to the opinions of the most celebrated physicians, are the primary cause of a large mojority of discusses to which children and activities are indicated in the property of discusses to which the property of discusses to the discussion of the property of the north the property of the north the property of the north that the property of the north the property of the north that the property of the north that the property of the north that the property of the north the property of the north that the p them a large sum of money, charging them on her, and she was recovering her mind.— that some such claim had been set up, or oth-Probably it was her physician who had just erwise I could not have been in my present some men here who have wives and children. been attending to her, and he had called her situation. I am also, perfectly aware, that They feel that it is not their duty to go for-Martin merely to humor her. She may, in once in a slaveholder's power, the laws of ward, oppose the law and be hanged, leaving her derangement, have called herself so .- the Southern States and the authority of the their wives and children widows and orphans. They adopt another course, and endeavor to repeal it, and not be shot down like dogs. A member asked who would shoot them you in the name of heaven's Sovereign, by Mr. Giddings said, the United States ar my; and if in protecting the slave a friend would kill his master, he would be hung .-There were few enough anti-slavery men, and they had none to spare in that way. I will strive for the repeal of that law with all the powers of my mind and soul. I have aided and will ail as many Jerrys in making towards Charleston. He arrived in Charleston. He had therefore, no their route to Ohio. He had therefore, no the route to Ohio. He had therefore to ohio. He had the route to Ohio. He had therefore to ohio. He had the route to ohio. He had the route to ohio. He had the rou his pursuer to shoot him should be attempt to to take him, and then asked the pursuer to take him. He, the slave-patcher, asked me what the slave would do, and I said that onless I were mistaken, and he disarmy expectations, he would shall pursurer went news a fur mie chesp, at > turned to Cincinnation SPRINGS-11 11 and 2 small piece of paper. She replaced the miniature in her bosom, and taking up the paper, read:

>
> "Dear Miss Amanda:—Forgive me the late of t

WE invite the attention of the public to the arrival of our SPRING GOODS. All those who wish to get the worth of their money back, will do welf to look through our stock, and pur-will do well to look through our stock, and purchase their spring supply.

A complete assortment of all goods necessary for the demands of the people, can be found. We call the attention of the Ludies to our prints and Dress Goods, Sonreta &c.—Genflemen to Summer goods, shirtings, Boots and shoes, and hats. Farmers, bring your boys, and we can clothe them from head to foot, in style, and very crear.

Friends, call and examine our goods soon.

JOHN H. BOSTWICK & CO.

May 24, 1852.

L. DALRYMPLE, MERCHANT TAILOR.

MERCHANT TALLOR.

HAS removed his shop two doors west of the Collins House, in the store formerly occupied by Messrs. Brown & Hurlbut, where he is prepared to execute all work entrusted to his care, in a neat and fasheousble manner. The subscriber is grateful for past favors, and respectfully solicits their continuance. He has on hand Cloths, Doeskin, Cassimere, Satm and Fancy Vesting, and Trimmings, also a fine lot of Cashamerett Tweed and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, which he will sell very cheep. A superior lot of BBADT-MADBCLOTELING, constantly on hand. Particular attention paid to be feels confident that he will be able to give general satisfaction, and solicits a share of public patronsge.

Shop over E. Woodruff's Blacksmith shop.

Ravenna, Aug. 14, 1852.

First-3m

TREASURER'S

and ther by building up and oggrand iring the orror the r executence, a To sit down, per submit to such falsehood and question of the country and of the age, that swal- parted, both a little wiser than they were five slave interest as a great national concern, they